

New Spring Merchandise

We have been very busy for the past two weeks, marking off new spring merchandise, and assure you that our stock is now at its best. We are bound to get warm weather in April and all will be glad to lay aside their winter clothing and wear the NEW SPRING STYLES.

Womens' Spring Suits, $15 to $35

No longer does the woman who seeks exclusiveness wait until the new season has well advanced before she buys a suit, for well she knows that many of the most attractive models cannot be duplicated later. Such charm and variety in the suits shown here at prices ranging from $15 to $35. Women are favored this year as never before.

Misses' and Junior Spring Suits, $12.50 to $18.00

Beautifully tailored, of fine serge, black, blue and all the popular spring shades. Sensible, youthful styles—appealing instantly to mothers of girls whose winter suits are growing shabby. (Misses' sizes, 14, 16, 18, 20. Junior sizes, 13, 15, 17.)

Mrs. B. R. Demeritt of Waterbury is visiting for a few days at the home of Miss Myrtle L. Walker. Mrs. Demeritt has consented to sing at the meeting Wednesday afternoon of the ladies' missionary society of the Congregational church.

"The Law and the Man." The right and wrong punished and the defeat of greed in its attempt to divert justice. This is the theme of this picture lesson. It is surprising to what extremes avarice will go to accomplish its object. Just take a good look at Silas Peters, and you can readily see what sort of a scoundrel he is, and we are not at all surprised when he is threatened with legal action for obtaining land for the railroad of which he is president, by fraud. This gets in a good one for justice and individual rights. It hits at an evil and does good. It strikes everybody as just what is needed in moving pictures. It's at the Dreamland.
